Release and Assumption of Risk

Guests/Participants/Students are to acknowledge that participation in outdoor activities and travels in outdoor environments may present risk to life and limb.

Due to the outdoor/wilderness setting, and the nature of participation in an experiential program, certain risks are beyond human control and some are inherent in the activities.

It is understood that you the participant/student on trip/course with Cabin Fever Adventures will be participating at your own risk.

Such risks include, but are not limited to, natural disasters, forces of nature, isolation from help, difficult evacuation, equipment failure, human error and accidents involving injury, including death.

You the participant agree to adhere to safety and other rules stipulated by the company/staff, and are responsible for providing accurate registration information regarding, your health, skill level and previous experience.

Notice is hereby given that all arrangements and services organized by Cabin Fever Adventures on behalf of the participants, are made on the sole condition that the owners, organizers, instructors and staff shall not be held responsible for any injury, death, accident, delay, loss, damage or irregularity which may be occasioned through acts, including negligence, of any company and/or persons engaged in carrying on the arrangements and services described herein or otherwise connected herewith.

I _____ (the participant) and my heirs and executors agree to save harmless and keep indemnified the company, its owner, organizers, agents, instructors and staff from all liability, howsoever caused, in connection with taking part in the activity. In acknowledging, accepting and assuming the risks and conditions outlined above, I acknowledge that I am of sufficient age and intelligence to sign this contract.
